

Calling All Composers!

The Ridgewood Friends of Music is pleased to announce the

1st Annual Emerging Composer Competition

- This competition is open to elementary, middle school and high school students who attend public school in Ridgewood, NJ, or an out-of-district school through the Ridgewood Board of Education. It is open to amateur composers. (There are also college and adult categories.)
- All styles of music welcome. There are no restrictions on instrumentation/vocal parts, or length of piece.
- There will be 1 winner chosen per category and the winners will be announced at the Ridgewood Friends of Music Concert in January 2020, with the possibility of having their pieces played at the concert.
- Pieces will be reviewed by a panel of local, professional musicians and composers.
- If interested in entering this competition, please visit the Ridgewood Friends of Music website for full details and the application. Click on “Events”.
